

To Whom it may concern,

My husband and I got married in Duluth, MN on August 2nd, 2014. We chose to go with Pro Sound and Light Show because of how great the reviews were and the pricing was fantastic. Andrew and I had no idea what kind of DJ we would have or really what type of music would be played, but when we met Aaron, we knew that everything would be taken care of.

The week of our wedding we met with Aaron at a local coffee shop in Duluth, MN. Expecting him to simply ask the typical DJ questions like "What type of music do you like?" we were happy and set back that he was more interested in who we were as a couple. He asked personal questions about what we liked to do individually, how we met, and what we did as a couple. He was actually very interested in our personal love story and that story was shown throughout the wedding night. We sat for over an hour about what to expect at our wedding. I had told him about my cousin Aaron who had downs syndrome and LOVED the chicken dance, I told him about how my parents REALLY don't like each other and we talked about how crazy big our wedding party was. After this meeting I was 100% confident that we got an amazing DJ.

On the day of the wedding Aaron was at the ceremony very early to set up. He made sure that EVERYTHING was set up appropriately, spoke to the musicians, and even talked to my aunt who had planned to sing. The ceremony was PERFECT not a single hiccup. The equipment never made that high pitched noise that hurts your ears, everyone could hear what was going on perfectly, and Aaron even filmed a little bit of it to make our own personal video after the day was over. My aunt who had planned to sing had originally told me that she would do it without music since I had told her that we weren't going to have anything set up outside of the microphones at the wedding. When Aaron had spoke to her prior to the ceremony he had set it all up so that she could have her tape play while she sang. I had a thought while my aunt was singing about how great Aaron had been for doing that last minute thing for us.

The Reception was a blast! Aaron met us outside and took the best "ELLEN SELFIE" ever! He helped us get set up for our grand entrance and announced everybody's names enthusiastically! He played an AMAZING host when announcing the toasts, dances, and speeches. Our guests honestly thought that we had known him personally. His presentation was enthusiastic and positive, making the atmosphere of the room match his energy.

During the reception there were quite a few things that really stood out to me, but I will name a few here:

- DJ Aaron performed the chicken dance with my cousin Aaron and made it a very special time for him. My cousin is rather shy and he doesn't come out of his box much but when that song came on and he was the host of it, the smile on his face couldn't have gotten any bigger! My grandmother actually talked to me about this a few weeks after the wedding and said how much it meant to Aaron and the family that our DJ did that!

- My GRANDMA AND GRANDPA DANCED!!!! My grandfather has dementia and my grandmother underwent surgery a while back and is in a wheel chair. EVERY wedding we have ever gone to they have not once danced, even prior to illness.... Not a single time. I got to actually dance with my grandpa on my wedding day. I honestly still cry about this because it makes me so happy. They were having so much fun that they didn't want to leave (they had to because of medical reasons). -We played such a FUN game that got the entire wedding involved—my friends had so much fun, and talked about it for weeks after the wedding. This got people engaged and entertained so that they were prepared for the bouquet and garter toss. It was very creative and a lot of fun for us and our family and friends.

The entire night went better than planned. I had very high hopes in a DJ and Aaron went above and beyond my expectations. I have still been hearing things about how awesome he was and our wedding was almost 2 months ago. I had heard that he went up to tables asking "What will it take to get you on the dance floor?", which is amazing because he knew that my biggest fear is that no one would dance!

Aaron wasn't just a great host and speaker; he also played amazing music. He tied in our style with modern and older music and created a list that would fit everybody's taste. We had well over 50 guests dancing on the floor until the end. Aaron also took a photo for us to remember who all stayed with us that night.

At the end of the day, people remember how much fun they had at a wedding, including the Bride and Groom. A great DJ can take minds off centerpieces, decorations, even food! I couldn't picture a better evening. I could relive my wedding night over and over again just because of how great the whole day was. I have had a few friends ask me for his information since the wedding because they have friends who are newly engaged and he was so awesome. Aaron Abramson is hands down the best DJ I have ever experienced, and I am so happy and blessed that it was at our wedding!
